Resolution.

The Olive Hill Literary society passed the following resolution at its meeting Friday evening Aug. 17, 1888.

Whereas some person or persons took from the Olive Hill School grounds, on the night of Aug. 14, an article procured by the O. H. L. S. for the purpose of firing a salute on the occasion of their first annual picnic. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, that this society having for its object the elevation of mankind do most heartily condemn all such actions.

J. A. RICE, President.

Squeezed by A Snake.

One day last week Thos. Courtney who lives in the Stinson neighborhood, went to the well, about 200 yards from the house to get a bucket of water. After drawing the water he stooped over to set the bucket on the ground, when a large black snake, dropped from the branch of a tree, above him, and quick as a flash coiled about his neck. He called once for help, but his second attempt to cry out was frustrated, as the serpent's coil had so tightened about his throat that he could not utter a sound. He threw up his hand and fortunately caught the snake around the neck, and with a desperate effort began uncoiling it from about his neck. He now began to get the better of the snake, which gradually relaxed its hold, and tearing it from his neck started to the house, but was so weak that he had to sit down. It was some time after his brother reached him, before he could explain what was the matter. What became of the snake he does not know. Mr. Courtney has quite recovered from the shock, but has no desire to repeat the terrible experience of being squeezed by a snake.

Teachers' Institute.

The Adair County Teachers Institute closed a two weeks session Friday, Aug. 24. Although the Institute opened with a small number in attendance, the interest steadily increased from the first day. To the efficient labors of Co. Com. J. D. Brown and Prof. D. T. Gentry, Supt. of our Public Schools is largely due the success of the Institute.

W. F. Dann, J. W. Roney, S. Dinsmore, C. M. Osenbaugh, D. N. Kennedy and Messrs J. E. Fellers, W. J. Pendleton, E. S. Quinn and others, added much to the life and interest of the session.

At the close of the session the following resolutions were read and adopted.

Resolved 1st that the thanks of the Institute are due, and are hereby extended to the board of education of the Kirksville School District for the use of the public school buildings and to the newspapers of the city for editorial notices and other favors.

2d. That the thanks of the Institute be extended to Rev. Ray Palmer, and Elder Simpson Ely, for the very able and instructive lectures which they presented to us, also to all who have aided us in the Institute by presenting new methods of teaching.

J. D. Brown.

Com. Mrs. G. Edmondson.

Officers for 1889, Pres. D. T. Gentry, Vice President, one for each township to be appointed by the Co. Com. Sec. Mattie Dinsmore, Treas. Jennie Davis.

The Executive Committee is composed of the Pres. Sec. Co. Com. Mrs. Gertrude Edmondson and Mr. E. S. Quinn.

Committee.

Greentop Crumbs.

Mrs. Henderson and little daughter, Ethel, of Iowa, are visiting at Mr. E. Owen's.

Mrs. Reynolds who has been sick so long, and so severely, is improving slowly. There were two or three times that all friends and her physicians gave up hope of her recovery.

Alonso Orr's infant child was buried at Greentop Cemetery last Sunday evening.

Greentop is becoming quite a point for wheat delivery. Dr. Wilson and J. V. Miller have bought about four car loads, also W. B. Reynolds is buying quite extensively. Prices range from 65 to 70 cents.

W. B. Reynolds bought about $300 worth of poultry this week.

Mr. Jeff Dyer is buying any and everything in the cattle line.

Everything the farmer has for sale always finds a market in Greentop; in fact we will put it against any other town of its size on this line of the Wabash for business.

Greentop public school opens next Monday, Sept. 3d, and it is hoped the parents will send their children at the opening so they can be properly classified. If parents knew how much trouble and confusion it makes for pupils to be coming in for four or five weeks after school has commenced they would be more particular in having their children go the first day, and also after they start their children to see that they are regular in attendance in order that they may be able to keep up in their studies.

UNCLE TOM.

The M. E. Concert.

The song service at the M. E. church last Sunday night attracted a large crowd and was pronounced by all a success. Through the kindness of Mr. W. J. Smith and Mr. Leu Blackman the magnificent new Star Piano which they are introducing was procured for the occasion. Mrs. Blackman presided at the piano during the evening. Her skill is proverbial.

Prof. Wm. Dann a musician of exquisite taste, by special request acted as director. The decorations were very pretty. Miss Alma Smith played, "Nearer my God to Thee," (piano solo) and distinguished herself as an elocutionist in the rendition of "The Modern Cain." "The prayer of the Wanderer," was beautiful. Miss Addie Greene sang a contralto solo "Ashamed of Jesus." Mr. W. J. Wilke's beautiful tenor voice showed to advantage in the duet "Come to Me" sang with Miss Smith. Miss Ollie Cater recited "Asleep at the Switch" in a graceful manner. Josie Snyder, Ardella Dockery and Mattie Sparling were the only children who took part and all did excellently. In the double quartettes Misses Nora Price, Allie Morgan, Ollie Walgamott, Mr. Tingley, Mr. J. R. Musick rendered valuable aid. Miss Fenora Sands sang a German solo with expression. Mr. Rob. Rider read the scriptures in a very impressive manner. Last and best of all was Mr. Blackman's solo with full chorus "You'd better quit your Meanness." Mr. W. J. Brasfield was unexpectedly called from the city and could not contribute his promised solo. The pastors remarks on music were to the point as usual. Judge Lewis announced the programme with much dignity. It has been requested that other and similar services be given in the near future.

OBITUARY.

There passed from out the earthly home into the spirit world, Aug. 14th, Mrs. Dorothea Eckert, beloved wife of Henry Eckert, Esq. Mrs. Eckert was from Prussia in Germany. Her family came to this country when she was a little child. In early life she was consecrated to the Saviour, and connected herself with the Lutheran church and when she became of ripe age was confirmed in that body. She has only gone from our earthly sight. In the spiritual world, among the good, an angel of light, we hope to meet her, and so we who remain awhile longer must, in the pathway of obedience, prepare to meet her. It is ours to mourn, not they who have gone hence in the Lord, but we mourn only as those who have hope in her departure. The funeral services were attended by the Rev. C. H. Canfield, Rector of Trinity Episcopal church and her form was laid amid the impressive service for burial, as used by that church, in the cemetery of this city.
